MBA/MSRED Curriculum & Courses

The Tulane MBA/MSRED degree is a two-year, five-semester program that includes:

- 49 credits in the MBA program (6 credits counted from MSRED classes) - classes that teach business fundamentals including finance, management, operations, accounting, statistics, and marketing
- 40 credits in the MSRED program (6 credit hours being credit for MBA classes)

First Year

Fall
- Management Communication - (2 credit hours)
- Analysis for Financial Management - (3 credit hours)
- Business Statistics and Models - (3 credit hours)
- Accounting Measurement, Reporting, and Control - (3 credit hours)
- Strategic Management - (3 credit hours)
- Economic Environment of Global Business - Global Leadership I - (2 credit hours)
- Career Development - (0 credit hours)

Spring
- Real Estate Industry Seminar - (3 credit hours)
- Operations and Supply Chain Management - (3 credit hours)
- Marketing - (3 credit hours)
- European Union - Global Leadership II - (3 credit hours)
- Financial Modeling - (3 credit hours)

Summer Intensive
- Freeman School Elective - (3 credit hours)
- Real Estate Finance & Economics - (3 credit hours)
- Finance Products - (3 credit hours)
- Real Estate Architecture and Design - (3 credit hours)
- Sustainable Urbanism - (3 credit hours)

Second Year

Fall
- Real Estate Finance - (3 credit hours)
- Applied Urban Economics - (3 credit hours)
- Legal Issues in Real Estate Development - (4 credit hours)
- Sustainable Design & Planning - (4 credit hours)
- Freeman School Elective - (3 credit hours)

Spring
- Case Studies in Sustainable Real Estate Development - (4 credit hours)
- Directed Research - (4 credit hours)
- Asia - Global Leadership IV - (3 credit hours)
- Freeman School Elective - (3 credit hours)