

Cordula Roser Gray

Professor of Practice, Tulane School of Architecture

Diplom - Ingenieur

American Institute Of Architects

Licensed Architect: New York, Louisiana

EDUCATION

1990-1994 Technische Fachhochschule Berlin, Germany degree: Diplom-Engineer

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2009-2017 Professor Of Practice, Tulane School of Architecture
Coordinator and Co-Coordinator DSGN2100
Coordinator Thesis Seminar and Studio AHST 5100/6100
Co-Coordinator VBB Central European Travel Program

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2003-present principal crgarchitecture, New Orleans, LA

2017	Milan Residence	renovation
2016	Bar Frances	new commercial interior
2015	Mossop Residence	renovation
2014	Tchoupitoulas Residence	addition/renovation
	SDavis Residence	renovation
2013	Cleveland Residence	new construction
2008-11	Hollygrove Growers Market and Farm w/ Tulane City Center	masterplan, design/build, renovation, phasing strategy
2007	Richard Residence w/ BILD Design	new construction
2006/2007	Kenneth's Hair Studio w/ BILD Design	interior build-out
	DataField w/ OSW	urban place-making
	American-Italian Cultural Center Café w/ OSW	proposal interior build-out
	L9 Environmental Learning + Research Cntr w/ Tulane City Center	masterplan/ building/landscaping/ programming
	Jane Place Neighborhood Sustain. Initiative w/ Tulane City Center	renovation/concept
	RIDENola w/ Tulane City Center	graphic advocacy campaign
	New Orleans Public Library w/ Tulane City Center	reconceptualization
	A.L. Davis Park w/ Tulane City Center	masterplan