

Andrew J. Borell

5610 Magnolia St.
New Orleans, LA 70115
920.229.6851
aborell@tulane.edu
www.borelldesign.com

Objective Statement

Continue to develop my interest in civic and cultural architecture while gaining experience in the path towards licensure.

Education

Master of Architecture Candidate, (Advanced Standing)
Tulane University | Expected May 2014

Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies, Minor in Art History
University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee | May 2011

Associate of Arts Degree in Communications, Theatre focus
University of Wisconsin-Fond Du Lac | May 2007

Experience

Urban Machines | Research Assistant

Tulane University | Summer 2013
Case study diagraming
Case Study text
Research case studies

Architectural Intern

Boca Grande Capital, LLC | December 2010 - January 2011
Photographic documentation of architectural models
Design of facade additions to historical building
Precedent research regional history of downtown Ripon, WI

Auditorium Manager

Ripon Public Schools | August 2005 - August 2007
Supervise set design and construction
Design lighting layout, fixture placement, and lighting queues
General sound design and supervise sound board operations
Theater budget management
Teaching theater club students Set design, Lighting, and Sound

Skills

Adobe CS6	Basic Construction
AutoCAD 2013	Digital Photography
HTML Coding	Fabrication Techniques
Microstation v7	Hand Sketching Physical Modeling
Revit 2013
Rhino v5 V-Ray Grasshopper

Achievements | Organizations

Project Pipeline Mentor | Summer 2013
Graduate Research Assistantship, Tulane University | 2012-Present
University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee Dean's List | 2010-2011
Honorable Mention for "UrbanEdge Studio: SOD installation" | 2009
Published works in Calibrations 3: Positions | 2009
Web site development for NEXT.cc

American Institute of Architects Students Member | 2012
National Organization of Minority Architects Louisiana Member | 2013