Douglas Haskell Award for Student Journals

Purpose
Founded to encourage student journalism on architecture, planning, and related subjects, and to foster regard for intelligent criticism among future professionals. The award is not intended as a prize for individuals, but to support the ongoing publication of student-edited journals whose subject matter could include architectural design, history, or theory.

Award
Single or multiple awards up to $5,000.

Eligibility
Any journal (online or print) published by a school of architecture, landscape architecture, or planning in the United States that is edited by students is eligible. The publication must have been produced in the current or previous school year.

Deadline
Applications must be received on May 1st by 5:00 pm EDT. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered. No exceptions.

Jury Guidelines
This award was founded to encourage student journalism on architecture, planning and related subjects, and to foster regard for intelligent criticism among future professionals. The award is not intended as a prize for individuals, but to support the ongoing publication of student-edited journals whose subject matter could include architectural design, history, and theory.

Application Requirements
- Application Form
- Contact Information: The entry must include information for both the faculty advisor(s) and the student editor(s), the signatures of these individuals, and the title and date of the publication.
- Statement of Purpose: Entries are to be accompanied by a concise statement (500 words max) describing the purpose of the publication, its intended audience, and the school and degree program that the entrants are enrolled in.
- Journal: The journal may focus on architecture, planning, or related subjects. The publications subject matter may include architectural design, history, or theory.

For more information and submissions requirements visit www.centerforarchitecture.org/scholarships-grants.

Questions?
Email scholarships@centerforarchitecture.org
Phone 212.358.6134